WAR ON GARFIELD TRACK.

Trying to Have It Suppressed and Declared a Nuisance.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—The opponents of Garfield Park are making desperate efforts to permanently abolish the track. Their latest attempt is in the shape of a bill filed in the circuit court to suppress the track and have it declared a public and common nuisance. The compalaints are to the effect that the club has been necessary for the police to keep a constant surveillance; that it has depreciated the value of property in the-neighborhood; that Garfield Park was crowded with idle and dissolute people, and finally, that the money absorbed by the club came from the industrial class, and the court is asked to perpetually enjoin the club from carrying on business at the park.
